

energy concept for the Amber Resort

Feasibility study for a green energy supply

| | |
|------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Challenge | Development of an efficient and sustainable energy concept with clear ecological orientation for a large individual vacation resort |
| Solution | Overall system of demand and energy supply sequencing based on scenario-based potentials and sector coupling |
| Use | Creation of a green vacation and adventure park independent of fossil energy sources |

Our Partners

